Find out what poetry is hot in Alaska! The contest categories are adult, elementary school, middle school, and high school poetry. This year's judge is Jeremy Pataky, a founding former board member and Executive Director of 49 Writers, a literary nonprofit in Alaska.

Poetry at the Dredge

April 29, 2-4pm
(29 Mile, Steese Hwy)

Fairbanks Arts invites you to an open air, open mic celebration of poetry and lyrics! Bring poetry to read or an instrument to accompany your song lyrics, a picnic lunch, a cushion or camp chair for comfortable seating, lots of warm clothes, and maybe a blanket or two (well, it is springtime in Alaska). Fairbanks Sketchers will also be drawing at the event. Let's wrap up National Poetry Month in a beautiful outdoor setting!

For more information, visit FAIRBANKSARTS.ORG or call (907) 456-6485 ext. 226

FAA programs are made possible by individual and corporate contributions, the City of Fairbanks Hotel/ Motel Bed Tax, Fairbanks North Star Borough Parks and Rec, Alaska State Council on the Arts, and National Endowment for the Arts.
